

Syllabus

THE FRICK COLLECTION

On Line: Mondays @ 1:30 p.m.

Instructor: Fran Smith

fransmith7335@gmail.com

The Frick Collection is an internationally recognized premier museum known for its distinguished Old Masters paintings and outstanding examples of European sculpture and decorative arts. Assembled by Pittsburgh industrialist Henry Clay Frick, it is housed in his former residence on Fifth Avenue in New York City. In this course, we will look closely at individual pieces by such artists as Bellini, Gainsborough, Turner and others featured in the series launched during the COVID shutdown, "Cocktails with the Curator."

February 1:	Bellini's 'St. Francis in the Desert'
February 8:	Holbein's 'Sir Thomas More'
February 15:	President's Day, no class
February 22:	Veronese's 'Wisdom and Strength' 'Choice between Virtue and Vice'
March 1:	Boucher's 'A Lady on Her Day Bed'
March 8:	Gainsborough's 'Grace Dalrymple Eliot'
March 15:	Spring Break, no class
March 22:	Ingres's 'Comtesse d'Haussonville'
March 29:	Constable's 'White Horse'
April 5:	Turner's 'Harbor of Dieppe'
April 12:	Whistler's 'Mrs. Frances Leyland'